Chapter 4 "Lincoln The Lawyer"

A. Vocabulary: Write the underlined vocabulary word next to its definition below. Then name the part of speech (noun, verb, adverb, or adjective) for each word.

1. The law firm of Stuart & Lincoln prospered in Springfield.
2. Illinois was divided into circuits. Each circuit was made up of several counties.
3. Lincoln was a gifted speaker. He was quick and bright as a debater.
4. Lincoln sought friendships among the well-to-do and influential citizens of Springfield.
5. Mary Todd was the daughter of a wealthy Kentucky merchant and banker.
6. Mary was used to luxury and having servants.
7. Abe gave Mary a ring that was engraved with Love is eternal.

	WORD	PART OF SPEECH	DEFINITION
a.	_____	_____	important, powerful
b.	_____	_____	routes within a territory
c.	_____	_____	had success; flourished
d.	_____	_____	a person who participates in formal arguments at public meetings
e.	_____	_____	lasting throughout all time; forever

B. Word Play: Use a vocabulary word to complete the phrase. The relationship between the first two words is the same as the relationship between the third and fourth words. This is called an analogy.

Example: "Hot is to cold as winter is to summer." Since the first two words are opposites, you need a word that is opposite of "winter" to complete the phrase.

circuits prospered influential citizens debater merchant luxury eternal
